Day 1 | Arrive Whitefish, MT

Guests arrive by train from Western or Midwestern points in quaint Whitefish, Montana to begin a two-night stay, just a short drive from Glacier National Park. Guests may also fly into nearby Kalispell, just 15 minutes away by complimentary shuttle. Overnight at the Grouse Mountain Lodge.

Day 2 | Overnight Whitefish

We depart this morning aboard one of the red open-air 'jammer' buses for the stunning trip over the famed Going to the Sun Road across the Continental Divide. Later, a visit to shimmering Lake McDonald where a boat cruise is enjoyed. Many of our passengers rate this the prettiest day of the entire tour and you will soon see why. Overnight at the Grouse Mountain Lodge. Tonight is our casual welcome dinner, a nice way to meet your fellow travelers. (CB, D)

Day 3 | Bozeman

Today is a scenic drive along Flathead Lake, the largest freshwater lake west of the Mississippi and through rustic Montana to Bozeman where superb accommodations await us at the Homewood Suites. (CB, R)

Day 4 | Yellowstone

A short drive this morning brings us to the North Entrance of the Yellowstone National Park, which we will tour all day including Upper Loop and Mammoth Falls before an afternoon arrival in West Yellowstone where we overnight in this charming small town in the frontier of Montana. (B)

Day 5 | Yellowstone

Established in 1872, Yellowstone National Park is America's first National Park and after breakfast, we begin a day that is a visual feast. You will see Lower Falls, Hayden Valley, Old Faithful, Fountain Paint Pot and the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone. We exit the park this afternoon and drive south into spectacular Grand Teton National Park, a spectacular landscape rich with jagged mountains, glaciers, pristine lakes and amazing wildlife including bison, moose and antelope. Here too, our guests enjoy a two-day visit with plenty of free time. Be sure to check out the famed Million Dollar Cowboy Bar and the antler arch across the street! (B)

Day 6 | Jackson Hole

Today we tour Jackson Hole with the highlight being an afternoon float trip on the Snake River. Grand Teton National Park protects stunning mountain scenery and a diverse array of wildlife. The Teton Range is the focal point of the park, the youngest range in the Rocky Mountains. An active normal fault, the Teton Fault, lies on the 40 mile long mountain front. Rock is jetted into the sky some 7,000 feet from the flat plains, with the highest peak at 13,770 feet, the Grand Teton. Happily, we have all evening at leisure to enjoy this quaint and historic setting. Overnight in Jackson Hole, WY. (B)

Day 7 | All Aboard!

Departing Jackson Hole this morning we travel South, stopping at the Oregon Trail Historical Center and then traveling along the Great Salt Lake with an evening arrival in Provo Utah where we enjoy dinner before boarding our private train, the Great Western Limited for our trip west to Sacramento via the famed Overland Route of the Union Pacific Railroad. There are after-dinner drinks and dessert in the lounge tonight as we travel over the original Transcontinental Railroad. Overnight is spent in Pullman sleeping car comfort with crisp sheets, warm blankets and wonderful pillows. (B, D)

Day 8 | Old Sacramento, CA

Morning finds us arriving in Reno at breakfast time and beginning our spectacular trip over the Sierra Nevada Mountains past names that read like an American history course: Stanford Curve, Donner Lake, Blue Canyon and the American River overlook to name just a few. Most of today is spent traversing this engineering marvel with its snow sheds and steep grades before our afternoon arrival and overnight stay in the Sacramento area where comfortable suites await us at the Embassy Suites adjacent to Old Sacramento, CA. (B, L)

Day 9 | Yosemite

This morning we have a short scenic drive south to Yosemite with our first glimpse of awe inspiring El Capitan and Half Dome. Yosemite always inspires reverence and amazement and happily, our guests have plenty of time to savor all of this glorious 'cathedral of Nature', to use John Muir's phrase, this afternoon with a complete tour of the Valley floor. Overnight at the Yosemite View Lodge alongside the rushing Merced River. (B)

Day 10 | San Francisco

Today we travel North to San Francisco up the great Central Valley, and begin our two-night stay in San Francisco at Sheraton Fisherman's Wharf to begin our visit to 'Everybody's Favorite City'. This evening is at leisure with plenty of nearby activities to explore. (B)

Day 11 | San Francisco

A magical day that begins with a complete city tour followed by a Bay Cruise that circles Alcatraz and sails under the Golden Gate Bridge. All afternoon is at leisure to explore the city on your own: Chinatown, colorful North Beach, chic Union Square with its fine shopping or a cable car ride are all fun options for this afternoon. Tonight is our special Farewell dinner at Fisherman's Wharf, a great treat. Overnight at the Sheraton Fisherman's Wharf. (B,D)

Day 12 | Journey Home

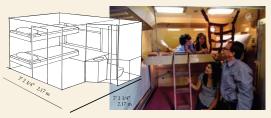

Guests travel home today by air or train or may opt to extend their stay in Northern California. (B)

Welcome Home!
