EIGHT DAYS FROM $3,695 PP - LIMITED AVAILABILITY!
DEPARTING JUNE 19, JULY 24 & SEPTEMBER 11, 2020
JUNE 18, JULY 23 & SEPTEMBER 10, 2021!

While there are many tour programs to the Canadian Rockies, only Train Holidays offers one with a magical and nostalgic beginning, travel aboard a 1940's style private streamliner train, our own 'National Parks Limited' to stunning Glacier National Park, Montana. Our guests enjoy a manner and style of train travel that has all but vanished with a choice of Pullman sleeping car accommodations featuring private facilities, comfortable beds, fluffy pillows and turn-down service. Onboard, there is an inviting dining & lounge area for relaxing in and meals are freshly prepared onboard by a skilled chef and served on tables graced with fresh roses and white linen. All meals, wines & spirits while aboard are included and there is simply no finer way to travel from Seattle to glorious Glacier National Park.

At Glacier National Park we have included an overnight at the historic Izaak Walton Inn and naturally, the storied 'Going to the Sun' Road on the famed red open-air 'jammer buses' and this is only an entrée to our next visual treat, the drive North to stunningly beautiful Invermere, British Columbia for a stay at the superb Copper Point Resort, the first of our five nights in the Canadian Rockies, Few tours offer four nights in Banff and this allows time not only to see the nearby area and we have included visits to lovely Moraine Lake, Lake Louise, Yoho National Park and more, but also large amounts of free time for you to enjoy this remarkable mountain setting at your own pace. All sightseeing in the Canadian Rockies is included.

With a stylish and elegant private train, magical Glacier National Park, picturesque Invermere and four indulgent nights in Banff, this leisurely holiday will sell out quickly and prompt reservations are encouraged.

CONDENSED DAY-TO-DAY ITNERARY

Day 1 - All Aboard!

Board the National Parks Limited in Seattle this afternoon and we are soon running alongside Puget Sound during our welcome reception, a nice beginning to a refined holiday. Later, we cross the Cascades while enjoying an elegant welcome dinner. Tonight is spent onboard as we roll East over the Burlington Northern Railway.(R, D)

Day 2 - Overnight Glacier Park

Today is a special treat as we disembark the train in Glacier National Park this morning for a boat cruise on stunning Lake McDonald, a glorious way to take in the high peaks of Glacier Park. This is followed by a day of spectacular sightseeing in Glacier National Park including the fabled "Going to the Sun" Road over the Continental Divide aboard the iconic red open-air 'jammer' bus. Tonight we enjoy comfortable accommodations at the historic Izaak Walton Inn, built by the Great Northern Railroad in 1939. (B)

Day 3 - Overnight Invermere, BC

Another beautiful day as we depart Glacier Park for Canada with our destination being lovely Invermere, British Columbia where we will enjoy our first night in the Canadian Rockies. Not only is this a short beautiful drive but we stay at the superlative Copper Point Resort, a magnificent hotel with a fine spa, golf, indoor and outdoor pools, a choice of dining and lounge venues and excellent rooms, all within a stunning view of the Kootenay Mountain Range. (B,L)

Day 4 - Overnight Banff

This is a day that defies easy description. We travel East into the heart of the Rockies over the famed Trans-Canada Highway with our first stop today being perhaps the most photographed lake in the world, magnificent Lake Louise where there is ample time to photograph this gorgeous lake. Then another lake is on the schedule, not as well known but also splendid Moraine Lake in the Valley of Ten Peaks. All of this is simply an entrée to our arrival this afternoon in Banff, where the sublime luxury of a four-night hotel stay awaits. We have intentionally left all evening at leisure for you to explore Banff Village at your own pace. (B)

Day 5 - Overnight Banff

We have left morning at leisure for you to sleep in, linger over breakfast or sightsee in Banff Village. This afternoon we visit the amazing Hoodoos Trail in Banff to see these amazing rock formations, stopping at Surprise Corner for iconic views of Banff. We then take the famed Banff Gondola ride to the top of Sulphur Mountain, a peak experience in every way with views of six mountain ranges and the beautiful Bow Valley. Nicely, not all of the fun is outside since we enjoy an early dinner atop Sulphur Mountain tonight at the Sky Bistro with its breathtaking views. (B, D)

Day 6 - Overnight Banff

This morning has a scenic treat with a boat cruise on nearby Lake Minnewanka and you will want to have your camera handy. Later today, an optional tour up the famed Icefields Parkway is available for purchase and this is always popular with guests that do it. Tonight is at leisure and might be an excellent time to visit the famed Banff Hot Springs with its warm soothing waters, a great way to relax after a day of adventure. (B)

Day 7 - Overnight Banff

A final full day to enjoy Banff and a fine time to visit the nearby Whyte Museum for a view of historic Banff and its beginnings, the superb Banff Center for the Arts or river rafting on the Bow River. Tonight is our Farewell dinner with time for an evening stroll through Cascade Gardens, a delightful farewell to this magical village. (B, D)

Day 8 - Welcome Home!

A morning transfer brings us to Calgary airport by 11am where easy connections can be made for all US points.(B)
